

The poetry of arpilleras: a series of events celebrating Mapuche culture

Tuesday May 31st – Friday June 3rd

An exhibition by local arpillerista Linda Adams curated by Roberta Bacic

Poetry read by Jaime Luis Huenún Villa, editor of Lof sitiado: antología poética en homenaje al pueblo Mapuche de Chile

After the hunger strike by Linda Adams

Tuesday May 31st: private view 5pm

Wednesday June 1st – Friday June 3rd: exhibition open 11am – 6pm

Wednesday June 1st: 6pm, introduction by curator, Roberta Bacic, poetry reading by Jaime Luis Huenún Villa, live music by Sue Gilmurray & Leslie Ray, Chilean food & wine

Thursday June 2nd: 11am & 2pm short film (Leufu, communities in the Williche region); 2pm – workshop with Linda Adams (please bring your own sewing-kit, materials will be supplied)

Friday June 3rd: 11am roundtable discussion 'The Mapuche and Chilean national identity' (Seminar Room E, Second Floor, 17 Mill Lane) <http://www.latin-american.cam.ac.uk/events/Mapucheroundtable.html>

curator, arpillerista and poet will be available throughout the afternoon for further discussion with visitors

All events are free and will take place at the Centre of Latin American Studies, Second Floor, 17 Mill Lane, Cambridge, CB2 1RX

Further information: jac46@cam.ac.uk