DUP NEWS*Latest News:*Clarke passes on sympathy to soldiers' families

Commenting after the funeral of Sapper Mark Quinsey Trevor Clarke, MLA for South Antrim has passed on his sympathy and offered his thoughts and prayers for the bereaved families. Trevor Clarke said:

“Almost two weeks have passed since the brutal and appalling murders of the two soldiers at Massereene Barracks, Antrim. I would like to offer my sympathies and prayers for the bereaved as these brave men are laid to rest this week. We will remember them, for their courage, duty and service paid to our country.”

Sapper Mark Quinsey died a hero, gunned down by lesser men with evil in their hearts. All of Northern Ireland will remember these soldiers with thankful hearts for their bravery and their dedication. This stands in sharp contrast to the low-life criminals who murdered them who will forever be remembered with disgust for their evil actions.”
