BRADLEY: COMMUNITY MUST STAND WITH QUINN FAMILY

Back to Latest News

SDLP Newry and Armagh MLA Dominic Bradley said the whole community of South Armagh and the whole north must stand with the Quinn family of Cullyhanna.

He said: “We must all commend the bravery of Brieger and Stephen Quinn who, in the midst of their grief, found the courage to stand forth and tell the truth about the murder of their son Paul. We must stand with them and against the thugs and all those who would seek to protect the thugs.

“I know the Quinns take strength from the way friends and neighbours have rallied round and sent a powerful signal that they will not accept the lies that are being told or control of their community by people who like to think they are above the law.

“The family have the right to expect the support of all public representatives in the immediate area and beyond. My colleagues and I will certainly do all that is within our power to bring their demand for justice forward.

“But the first thing we must do is very clearly reject the self-serving lies that are being told about Paul. There is only one issue at the root of this crime and it is community control.”
